

PHILIPPIANS

INSTANCES OF THINK OR HAVE MIND (φρονέω)

Philippians 1:7

It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel.

Philippians 2:2

...complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.

Philippians 2:5

Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus...

Philippians 3:15

Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you.

Philippians 3:19

Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things.

Philippians 4:2

I entreat Euodia and I entreat Syntyche to agree in the Lord.

Philippians 4:10

I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me. You were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity.

(Please note that the noun “mind” in both Philippians 1:27 and Philippians 4:7 is translated from different root words in Greek, ψυχή and νόημα, respectively.)
